4 of a respondent in a domestic abuse case pursuant to chapter
5 236 or a sexual abuse case pursuant to chapter 236A, the court
6 shall enter an order expunging the record of either case if the

22 2. The record in a case expunged under this section is a

EXPLANATION

10 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 11 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

12 This bill relates to the expungement of domestic abuse and 13 sexual abuse dismissals.

14 The bill provides that upon application by a respondent
15 in a domestic abuse case or a sexual abuse case, the court
16 shall enter an order expunging the record of either case if the 17 court finds that the court has entered an order dismissing the 18 petition alleging that the respondent committed domestic abuse
19 or sexual abuse; all court costs, fees, and other financial 20 obligations ordered against the respondent have been paid;
21 and a minimum of 180 days have passed since the dismissal
22 of the case unless the court finds good cause to waive the 23 requirement. All the parties in the case must be allowed time
24 to object on the grounds that one or more of the relevant 25 conditions for expungement as specified in the bill have been 26 met before the court is allowed to enter an order expunging the 27 record of a domestic abuse case or a sexual abuse case.

28 The bill amends the definition of "expunged" to include
29 court records that are not criminal in nature.
